Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Matthew Taylor, is hereby committed on Counts 8, 9 and 10 of the First Superseding Indictment and Counts 1 and 2 of the Second Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of NINETY (90) MONTHS. This term consists of sixty (60) months on each of counts 8, 9 and 10 of the First Superseding Indictment to run concurrently with each other; sixty-two (62) months on each of Counts 1 and 2 of the Second Superseding Indictment to run concurrently with each other and with the remaining counts of conviction; and twenty-eight (28) months under 18 U.S.C. § 3147 to run consecutive to the five counts of conviction.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three (3) years on each of the five counts of conviction, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment, and any order of restitution or other court-ordered financial obligations in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and or alcohol. medications during the period of supervision;

5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug/alcohol dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and or alcohol dependency and mental health treatment to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer;

The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name or names without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer;
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
11. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay the $1,138,038 in federal taxes, interest and penalties owed for the years of conviction; and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
12. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving antiques and or art without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer; and
13. The defendant shall apply to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $1,244,190.52 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A and 18 U.S.C. §3583(d) to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately a proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

USA vs. Matthew TaylorDocket No.: LA CR11-00834(B)-JAK

A partial payment of $150,000 shall be paid immediately. The balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10 percent of defendants's gross monthly income, but not less than $500, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $500, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

On motion of the United States Attorney, the Appearance Bond belonging to, and deposited by or on behalf of the defendant, is hereby ordered to be paid to the Clerk of this Court to be applied to any or all financial sanctions ordered herein consistent with the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture and Personal Money Judgment of Forfeiture, filed October 17, 2012. Dkt. 284, 285.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be able to participate in the R-DAP Program at a facility located in the Southern California area.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the Government's request to dismiss all remaining counts.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
